

I have served over twenty years as Emergency Coordinator of Cooper County in Missouri. Amateur radio volunteers have served the people of Cooper county many times during weather spotting, floods and other emergencies. The effects of BPL could cause unrepairable damage to our ability to handle emergency communications. Please do not approve Docket 03-104.

WB0ROT
Bill Simmons